Meeting Manager

*Opens the meeting
Drives the discussion
Closes with decision*

Your Lines:

OPENING

"Good morning everyone! We're here to plan our company picnic. Let's start with the food coordinator."

TRANSITION

"Great ideas! Now let's hear from our Activities Planner."

VOTE

"Excellent! Now — shall we go to the city park or the beach?"

CLOSING

"The park it is! Thank you all. Meeting adjourned!"

Food Coordinator

*Suggests food & drinks
Presents the budget
Responds to ideas*

Your Lines:

SUGGESTIONS

"I suggest a BBQ station, sandwiches, fresh salads, and soft drinks — plus a dessert table with fruits and sweets."

BUDGET

"The estimated budget is around $500. Does everyone agree?"

RESPOND

"Of course! I'll add juice to the list — great idea!"

LOCATION VOTE

"I prefer the park — it's much easier to set up the BBQ there."

Activities Planner

*Proposes games & fun
Presents the schedule
Incorporates team ideas*

Your Lines:

ACTIVITIES

"I suggest a football match, tug of war, live music after lunch, and a prize ceremony at the end."

SCHEDULE

"The picnic runs from 10 AM to 4 PM. Does this work for everyone?"

"A photo booth? Wonderful idea! I'll add it to the schedule."

"I also prefer the park — much more space for the games."

Secretary

*Takes notes throughout
Contributes to discussion
Delivers final summary*

Your Lines:

DURING MTG

""Noted!" / "Got it!" — take notes quietly while others speak."

LOCATION VOTE

"I also think the park is the better choice."

SUMMARY

"Location: City Park. Food: BBQ, sandwiches, salads & drinks. Activities: Football, tug of war, photo booth & live music. Time: 10 AM – 4 PM."

CLOSE

"I'll send everyone the full plan by email tomorrow. Thank you!"

Full Dialogue Script

Manager:

"Good morning everyone! We're here to plan our company picnic. Let's start with the food coordinator."

Food:

"I suggest BBQ, sandwiches, salads & drinks. Budget: ~$500. Does everyone agree?"

Manager:

"Great! Now let's hear from our Activities Planner."

Activities:

"Football, tug of war, live music & prizes. From 10 AM to 4 PM. Any suggestions?"

Secretary:

"Can we add a photo booth?"

Activities:

"Love it! Added to the schedule."

Manager:

"City park or beach — let's vote!"

All 3:

"The park! (Food: easier BBQ setup · Activities: more space · Secretary: sounds perfect)"

Secretary:

"Summary: City Park, 10 AM–4 PM. Food + Activities confirmed. Email plan sent tomorrow!"

Manager:

"Thank you all! Meeting adjourned. See you at the picnic! 🎉"

Tips for a Great Performance

Don't memorize word-for-word

Understand the ideas and speak naturally. Real conversations are flexible!

Make eye contact

Look at your teammates when speaking — it makes the interaction feel real.

React to each other

Say 'Great idea!', 'I agree', 'What about...?' — make it a real discussion.

Know your role

Each person has ONE main job. Focus on doing it well rather than doing everything.
